

December 2008

Hi Susan,

Just wanted to send you a note about the service we received from Rob Wesson.

Everything from showing us lots of houses, asking questions about particulars we were looking for, to taking the time to find the right house.

Rob is such a patient and understanding person. He did lots of things, over and above what was asked of him. The process of buying our current house had quite a few complexities to it, and a few frustrations along the way, but Rob handled everything professionally and got the job done.

We particularly enjoyed his sense of humour, and believe me, we appreciated that, because it made us all laugh during the challenges of closing the deal.

We love Rob, and would definitely recommend him to others. He is one of the most helpful and knowledgeable people we've met.

He's a wonderful part of your team.

Thanks again to you, Rob, and all the gang for helping us get the house we love now.

Cheers,
